GLITZ & GLAM FASHION PARADE

Year 11 & 12 Business Communication and Technologies (BCT)
Fashion Parade

A reflection by each student involved in the BCT class:

Blayde Twaddle

The Year 11 & 12 Business Communication and Technologies (BCT) class hosted a fashion parade to raise money towards the Year 12 formal. It took a great deal of time and effort in the organisation of the event. Several people were involved in the creation of the Glitz and Glamour Fashion Parade which occurred on Friday, 11 September, 2015. Sponsors donated prizes, models' clothing and they sold tickets in their businesses to raise money for this event. The fashion parade was held in Tully State High School's Multi-Purpose Centre.

Make-up artists from the Tully community donated their services at the Glitz and Glam' Fashion Parade. The models were divided between four different make-up artists, Alison Clifford, Alana Leahy, Aleah Hallie and Maddie Maher. As Alison, Alana and Maddie are qualified make-up artists, they provided a professional touch to the fashion show. Alison and Alana primarily use the brand Arbonne and are both independent consultants. Aleah Hallie, a Year 12 student at Tully State High School, was instrumental in providing a fourth make-up artist for the event. The BCT class is grateful to all make-up artists who donated their time and services to the Glitz and Glam' Fashion Parade.

Alison Clifford is applying the make-up for her daughter, Kodee Clifford, who modelled a vintage wedding dress.

Alison Clifford completed Caitlin Welsh's make-up.

Alana Leahy applied the make-up of Miss Stevie Andrews.

Miss Kylie Daniels is being made up by Tully State High School student, Aleah Hallie.

Manpreet Kaur's make-up was completed by Alana Leahy.

Aleah Hallie applies make-up to Olivia Luxford.

Tully State High School acknowledges, values and pays respect to the first peoples on whose land we live, work and learn believing through education and reconciliation we walk together as partners toward a better future for all.

Brodie Samperi

The fashion parade held a raffle during the night with numerous door prizes; funds raised were contributed to the Year 12 formal. The prizes were donated by the Tully community - News Express, LiveLife Pharmacy, Tully Raycare Family Pharmacy, the Borgna family and Kitchen Essentials. Some of the prizes were home-made soap, bundles of beauty products, chocolates and a bottle of wine. I extend my gratitude to these businesses for donating for the raffle and door prizes.

In preparation for the 'Glitz and Glam' BCT Fashion Parade tickets were created. Adults' and children's tickets were sold with both of them having various prices and colours. All of the tickets were backed onto black cardboard with the adult's ticket being on silver shimmering paper and the child tickets on gold shimmery paper. The prices of the tickets varied with the adult tickets selling for $15 and the child tickets selling for $5. Once the tickets were created they were delivered to participating shops within the local area so that tickets could be purchased before the night. These businesses included: Igguldens Tully, Ob La Di Cardwell and the Tully State High School Administration Office.

Jordan Moody

Year 11 BCT student Jordan Moody was playing the music and manipulating the audio controls for the night. Jordan has great musical potential which is why he was perfect for the job. Tully State High School's Head of Teaching and Learning for the Humanities Department, Mr Daniel Hadgelias, supervised Jordan and provided some of the music played on the night. Certain music was selected to suit the different models, for example children who were modelling were aged three to ten years old, therefore more upbeat and happy music was played whereas music which suits weddings was played to the wedding dress models. Overall, the music was loud and suitable for such an event.

Demi Lindsay

There are many brilliant hairdressers that own a business in the local community of Tully; they include Aussie Hair Designs, Hair on Butler and Jane McNamara's. The talented hairdressers of Aussie Hair Design include Raelene Miller, Alison Smith, Michelle Nash and Jo Sinton. The hair was completed in a time-efficient manner, looked absolutely stunning and was done with the nicest service possible. These lovely ladies took time away from their afternoon in order to assist in the local school fundraiser, the Glitz and Glam Fashion Parade. In the process of preparing the many models for the fashion parade, Hair on Butler and Jane McNamara's Studio also assisted in the event. Each hair design that was created on the models was as unique as they were beautiful. Every ounce of help provided by these exquisite ladies was highly appreciated.

The recent fashion parade held in Tully by the year 11/12 BCT class was a huge success. The important job of Master of Ceremonies was given to Miss Tiffany Wood and Mr Warren Giffin, who were both outstanding on the night. They donated their Friday night and dedicated their vocal skills towards making it an amazing night for both the staff, volunteers and providing entertainment for the audience. The mixture of fashion-related humour and skilful commentary given by the two helped build the enjoyable atmosphere on the night.

The fashion parade was a great success with approximately one-hundred and eighty guests attending. The aim of this fundraiser was to raise money for the Year Twelve Formal which the BCT class was successful in achieving. The only major expense that affected the money raised was the catering for the event.

The models paraded clothing from businesses around the local area. Sponsors included: Igguldens (Tully), Little Angels (Tully), Ob la di (Cardwell), Devine Bridal (Cairns), Ibu & Bean (Mission Beach) and Kitchen Essentials (Tully).

Casual, smart casual, work wear, western wear, children's wear, formal and bridal were all categories showcased in the parade.

The sound of a humming Harley Davidson hurling through the hall kicked the night off as Tully High's own Acting Principal Mr Adrian Hooper rode on the back making a marvellous grand entrance to the song "Leader of the Pack". This fine piece of entertainment was followed by the modelling of clothing from suppliers around the district. Tully State High school's teachers and students volunteered to be a part of the glamorous show put on for the Tully community. Not only did they display their wonderful talents on the catwalk, but their help with preparation and guidance back-of-house was outstanding and much appreciated. All clothing from casual, smart casual, formal and bridal was provided by local shops, helping them with their sales post Fashion Parade as well as pleasing the audience on the night. This Glitz and Glam' fashion parade also included a "Brides of yesterday" section. This section included past brides' wedding dresses from around the community being modelled one more time! These dresses were a special part of the night and were brilliantly suited to the theme Glitz and Glam'.

Running a fashion parade or any event for that matter takes a lot of time and hard work. There are many people that devoted time and help such as Tully State High School's students and teachers as well as various parents and members of the community to whom we are so very grateful. Thank you all very much. A huge thank you goes to the Senior Business Communications and Technologies class teacher Mrs Helen Ross for her many weeks of preparation, management and coordination of this event. It was a success and thank you to everyone who came along and supported it. It was a wonderful night.

Food played an important part in the success of the Fashion Parade. The BCT class decided to assign Ms Dominique Paul, the hospitality teacher, the responsibility of catering for the event. Ms Paul has previous experience in the hospitality industry. In applying her knowledge of cuisine, Ms Paul suggested finger food is the most appropriate type of food for this event. Taking this into consideration, various high-class sweet and savoury canapés were offered at this event during intermission. The food was popular, tasty and disappeared quickly.

Old Mental Health Week takes place in the week of World Mental Health Day, which is marked each year on October 10. It is a chance to reflect on mental health and take some positive steps to highlight the importance of mental wellbeing. This year, the theme in Queensland is "value mental health." TSHS continues to focus on mental well-being for the whole school through Positive Education.

Ms Gunn shared a website from the ABC highlighting 'little acts of kindness'. An excerpt from one heartfelt story from a high school student follows:

"At the time though, my friends and people at school didn't really understand what I was going through.. School counselors are vital to provide teenagers with someone to talk to, and support them. When you're in the depths of mental illness everything seems hopeless, but there will be a day when you can't imagine not wanting to be here. I promise, you'll wake up and be thankful to be here. Reach out and get help early."

If you need advice about coping with your situation or just want someone to listen there are your teachers and several people in the Support Services Team at school who can help including: Ms Chilcott, Phil, Alice, James, Ms Brown & Ms Bromley.

FOR PARENTS WEBSIGHT

We are proud to announce the launch of our For Parents website, specifically designed to help parents be more involved in their child's tertiary study decisions.

Make sure you tell your parents about it.

Use it as a starting point, or a great adjunct to the guidance you are already giving.

At the For Parents site, parents can:

- get useful hints and tips to help your child.
- find out when to start planning.
- choose the right course and institution.
- check out how to apply.
- investigate support services.

For more information email go.enquiries@qtac.edu.au.
