Graduation 2015

On Friday 20 November, our Year 12 cohort at Tully SHS were recognised for the last time, as they participated in their Graduation Ceremony. The day started with an official morning tea held in their honour, which was attended by teachers, family and friends who were invited to help celebrate this important milestone. The event was held in the library, a place which was humming with excitement, shirt signing, fond farewells and the odd tear.

At 11:40am our senior class for 2015 entered the Multi-Purpose Centre for the last time. They attentively listened to words of wisdom passed on by our Principal, Ms Leanne Fox, Year 12 Coordinator Miss Angela Bevan and Chaplain Mr Phil Magarey. We were treated to a performance from Mr Ian Stewart who sang a song to the year 12s to mark this important occasion, and a short film, compiled by Holly Pavan, was played to showcase just a few of the highlights of this year. Each of our students were presented with a compendium and a Tully

State High School keyring. Our School Captains for 2016, Kate Kirkwood and Josh Apap, were introduced to the audience, before calling on our outgoing School Captains, Alex Dorante and John Vasta for their final address.

The end of our ceremony saw our Year 12 students make their way out of the MPC through a guard of honour consisting of year 10 and 11 students. As our Seniors left the building, they walked beneath a water arch generously created by our Tully Fire Brigade. A truly fitting end for an amazing group of young adults.

FROM THE MATHS DEPARTMENT

Maths Quiz

WEEK 7 SOLUTION:

Twenty-Nine kids didn't like either sport. If you take the 55 kids who liked Rugby League and add the 40 kids who liked AFL, you have a total of 95 kids. But 24 of these liked both; so $95 - 24 = 71$. Then you subtract 71 from 100 to arrive at the number of kids who didn't like either sport, 29.

WEEK 8 QUIZ:

1=3, 2=3, 3=5, 4=4, 5=4, 6=3, 7=5, 8=5, 9=4, 10=3

So what does
