SENIOR INDUCTION 2015

On Monday February 23, the Senior Induction was held at Tully State High School. It was an important day in the school calendar as we welcomed our Seniors to their new roles as leaders of our school. Becoming a Senior and signing the Senior Undertaking recognises that our students have reached the time in their lives when we no longer look upon them as children or teenagers but as young adults.

We also recognised those students who have been elected to specific leadership roles, including school captains, house captains and the student council executive.

We were very proud of the 100 year 12 students who received their senior badges and we wish them all the best in their final year of schooling.

Tully State High School acknowledges, values and pays respect to the first peoples on whose land we live, work and learn believing through education and reconciliation we walk together as partners toward a better future for all.

YEAR 8 CAMP 2015

Last week Year 8 students attended their first school camp at beautiful Mungalli Falls. The students spent three days completing a variety of hair-raising activities including archery; abseiling down a cliff face; land sliding down a 100m slide in under 10 seconds; trudging through mud pools in an obstacle course; and finally, speeding through the air on a flying fox to land in a pool of water. During free time students enjoyed playing a variety of sports, visiting glowworm caves, playing trivia and meeting new people in their year level. It was an amazing three days, for both students and staff.

GALLIPOLI

A manual of trench warfare

Tully State High School wishes to mark the special significance of the 100th anniversary of the Gallipoli Campaign. In doing so we would like to invite you to a performance of the play, Gallipoli - A Manual of Trench Warfare, a Queensland production that has received critical acclaim.

The action takes place within a sandbagged trench and illuminates the issues and social dynamics faced by these tiny communities - the heroism, hardships and loneliness that characterised the Anzac experience.
